

“A PHILANTHROPIC SPEAKS- LESSONS FROM LIFE”

A virtual lecture titled “A Philanthropic Speaks- Lessons From Life” was organized by BARSA (Business Administration And Research Students’ Association) in the seminar hall of Department Of Business Administration And Research, Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj College of Engineering, Shegaon on Saturday, the 24th September 2016. The lecture was delivered by Mrs. Sudha Murthy who is wife of Mr. Narayan Murthy, and is currently chairperson of Infosys foundation. She is a computer engineer by profession, a prolific writer and a social worker. She has been awarded with numerous prizes including Padmashri, Millennium Mahila Shiromani Award, Ojaswini, Karnataka Rajyotsava and many more.

This talk was originally delivered by Mrs. Sudha Murthy in the University of California, Berkeley at the Centre for South Asia Studies, Berkeley on the occasion of a ceremony organized to confer upon her an award by this university in recognition of her outstanding philanthropic works.

In her lecture she shared her experiences about working for the downtrodden, weaker and deprived sections of society. Students were stunned and contented as she herself is the synonym for the word ‘inspiration’. This lecture can be downloaded from youtube through the link as given herewith.
